

CAPTURE OF FORTS SEALS CITY'S DOOM

Adrianople is Hard Pressed and is Gradually Giving Way to the Bulgarians.

PUSH ATTACK AT TCHATALJA

Further Positions in Front of Constantinople Reported to Have Fallen

GRAPHIC BATTLE DESCRIPTIONS

London, Nov. 11.—The Bulgarian attack on the Tchatalja lines protecting Constantinople goes on unrelentingly.
According to a correspondent at the front, further Turkish positions have been captured, but their location has not been indicated, in accordance with the invariable Bulgarian plan to never reveal information to the enemy.

There is an unconfirmed report that Hopiastir has been captured. This, and the capture of Dibra, an important town in Albania, by the Servians, after heavy fighting, constitute all the military news of importance since Saturday.

Some idea of the bloody nature of the war may be formed from the fact that it is now estimated that one hundred and fifty thousand men have been put out of action on both sides since the opening of hostilities.

Graphic Battle Descriptions.

Paris, Nov. 11.—A graphic description of the storming by the Bulgarians of two Turkish forts at Kurtkatepe and Papatepe, in the outer line of fortifications around Adrianople and forwarded by a correspondent of the Matin, declares their capture seals the doom of the Turkish stronghold.

Operations began at daybreak Thursday. The Bulgarian infantry advanced under a murderous fire of shrapnel. The Turks sallied forth from the forts to deliver the counter.
The Bulgarian siege artillery from the surrounding hills rained a terrific hall of projectiles on the Turkish troops. Every moment saw fresh companies of Turks marching out from the city and the forts towards the Bulgarians, who continued to draw their lines closer around the forts.

The Turkish infantry resisted stubbornly the Bulgarian advance, but their lines gradually began to waver. Suddenly the command, "Fix bayonets," rang out from the Bulgarian officers, and cheering wildly the Bulgarian infantry dashed forward and the Turks broke and retreated. At noon the Bulgarian colors fluttered over the fort of Kurtkatepe, but Papatepe still held out. Nightfall found the Turks and Bulgarians still fighting.

Suddenly in the dense darkness a long dazzling ray of light shot across the city from one of the crests held by the Bulgarians, bringing the fort of Papatepe clearly into view. Then from the fort itself another brilliant ray shot out. Cannon and rifle fire, which had been slackening, again became brisk. Above the combatants the searchlights flashed and whirled an immense ray around in which little balls of white smoke, caused by the bursting of shrapnel, floated like flies in a sunbeam, making even deeper the surrounding blackness which was punctuated here and there by flashes from the muzzles of cannon. The fire from the Papatepe fort gradually began to slacken. Abruptly the searchlights were extinguished and the Bulgarian infantry began to storm the fort at the point of the bayonet. Shortly before midnight they became the masters of the position and the Turks were in flight. They left their dead by hundreds on the field.

The fort on Papatepe is one of the most important features of the defenses of Adrianople. It commands not only the city itself but all the outer works. Throughout the operations the Bulgarian aeroplanes flew back and forth over the Turkish forts, bringing valuable information to the Bulgarian generals in command.

The correspondent talked with some of the Turkish prisoners in the hands of the Bulgarians. Many of them came from Asia and never before heard of Bulgaria. When the cause of the war was explained to them, one said: "We knew nothing of that. At Brusa, where we were recruited, we were told that according to the law of the prophet, we must go and fight the infidels, that the hour to exterminate them had arrived."

CALUMET WOMAN'S CLUB.

Report of State Federation Presented to Members.

At Friday's regular meeting of the Calumet Woman's club, in the Y. M. C. A. lecture room, Mrs. Helene R. Halling, delegate to the state convention at Saginaw, presented her report. The report shows the state has 545 federated clubs, only four of which are located in the upper peninsula, namely clubs in Calumet, Hancock, Menominee and Sault Ste. Marie. The convention in Saginaw was the eighteenth, the first having been held in Grand Rapids in 1895. The next convention will be held in Muskegon.
Seventeen clubs throughout the state own their own homes.

Miss Agnes Mitchell gave a delect-ful reading of three numbers in connection with yesterday afternoon's meeting.

CONTEST OVER $1,000,000 WILL

League Battle to Break Lumber Baron's Will Started by Son

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 11.—The contest over the will of Frank H. Holyoke, involving an estate estimated at $1,000,000 and with ramifications extending from Maine to California, came up in court here today for trial. The present contest, which follows a similar legal battle already on in the courts of Maine, was brought by a son of the deceased millionaire, Rev.
Sydney A. Holyoke, whose home is in Milwaukee.

Frank H. Holyoke was a wealthy lumberman of Bangor, Me. He came to California for his health and died at Pasadena a year ago last October.
In his will he cut off the widow with $1,000 and gave each of his sons $100.
Both sons had had little to do with their father for several years. When he made his will, the lumberman charged his sons with lack of filial devotion and justified his treatment of his wife by the statement that he had already effected a settlement with her under the terms of which she was to receive certain property in satisfaction of all claims against his estate. The entire estate, with the exception of $50,000 bequeathed to Bangor, Maine, was left to two nieces, Medeline and Marjorie Holyoke of Bangor.

In his notice of contest, the Rev.
Sydney A. Holyoke alleges that the will was not signed by his father, and that it was drafted by "certain designing persons residing at 'Pasadena'" while his father was mentally unbalanced.

SUFFRAGE MAY BE CONTESTED

Not Properly Submitted in Five Counties It's Said

Lansing, Mich., Nov. 11.—State officials say the woman's suffrage question was not correctly submitted in five counties and that letters from different portions of the state announce plans are being made to contest the election and attempt to prevent the result, which favored the granting of the ballot to women from being allowed to stand. It is said the votes of these five counties, if thrown out, will defeat the proposition.

HANG SEVEN FRIDAY, DEC. 13.

Oregon Executions to Follow Defeat of Reform at Polls.

Salem, Ore., Nov. 11.—Since the voters of Oregon have decided to retain the institution of capital punishment, the state officials have set Friday, December 13, as the day upon which seven condemned men will swing on the gallows. Gov. West, while expressing his disappointment that his measure for the abolition of capital punishment has failed of passage, stated that he would go ahead with the hanging.

BLOW UP POWER HOUSE.

Then McManigal Claims Hookin Said
He Spoiled Job.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 11.—Ortle McManigal today continued the re-cit of his acts as a paid dynamiter.
"After I blew up the power house of the car shop at Mount Vernon, Ill., Hookin said I had gotten the wrong job," testified McManigal. "He said I spoiled the blowing up of the railroad bridge and the unionist executive board would not allow me pay for the job."

RACE TRACK MAN SHOT.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 11.—Jinks Mc-Creary, a prominent figure on the race tracks of the country for the last decade, was shot and probably fatally injured in the corridor of a hotel here tonight. Captain James Jacobs, of the Lafayette Jockey club detectives, is under arrest charged with shooting with intent to kill.

SENATOR SMITH IS SURE TO WIN

Will Get Seventy-One Votes on Joint Legislative Ballot For

Senatorship

FOUR MORE THAN HE NEEDED

Republican State Ticket Probably Has Been Successful

Detroit, Nov. 11.—The complete list of senators and representatives elected to the legislature, shows the following to be the political complexion of the two houses:

Senate, 32 members:
Republicans ..... 19
Democrats ..... 7
Progressives ..... 6
House, 100 members:
Republicans ..... 53
Democrats ..... 35
Progressives ..... 12

This gives the Republicans a majority in each house, as well as 71 votes on joint ballot. William Alden Smith, the primary choice of the Republican party for U. S. senator, therefore, will succeed himself in office, as the Republican vote is four more than the needed joint ballot majority of 67.

The legislators, being bound to vote for the primary choices of their parties for U. S. senator, will cast their ballots next January as follows:

William Alden Smith of Grand Rapids, Republican ..... 71 Alfred Lucking, of Detroit, Democrat ..... 42
Theodore L. Joslin, of Adrian, Progressive ..... 19

Final figures showing the defeat of "Merciful Mike" Moriarty in the Thirty-first senatorial district, and the election of Charles T. Winegar, Progressive, in his stead, completed the standing of the Senate.

The winners of the last five doubtful house seats have just been fully determined. The first Ottawa district elected Chas. H. McBride, Republican.
The second Ottawa district re-elected Walter H. Clark, Republican. The Isabella district elected Thomas Gray, Republican. The Barry district re-elected Henry C. Glassner, Democrat.
The Mason district elected Charles Tutts, Republican.

G. O. P. Ticket in Lead.

Lansing, Mich., Nov. 11.—Returns received from 65 counties by the secretary of state indicated that Martindale is 12,500 ahead of Baird of the National Progressive candidate for secretary of state, and about 18,000 ahead of Balch, the Democratic candidate.

It is believed that the figures on secretary of state show within a few hundred the vote on the remainder of the state ticket, including Lieut.
Governor Ross and Justices Storey and Kuhn.

IMPORTANT MEETING.

Annual Meeting of Miners in Milwaukee Tomorrow.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 11.—In an interview the well-known minor baseball mascot, Michael H. Sexton of Rock Island, Ill., gives some interesting facts concerning the game from a minor league standpoint. Mr. Sexton has been connected with the game for many years past and has been a member of the national board back in 1909. In sizing up the present baseball situation, Mr. Sexton says:

"The coming annual meeting of the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues, the great minor league organization, to be held at Milwaukee on the 12, 13th, 14th and 15th of this month, is, in my judgment, destined to be the most important baseball meeting held in recent years.

"Salary limits, per league, club and individual, will be the absorbing topic of discussion. How to best arrive at the proper maximum figure for each classification; how to govern the less important leagues in each class that can not afford to pay the maximum; and how to properly and effectively enforce such legislation after its adoption, are questions that will require most careful consideration before their final adoption.
"Many plans and ideas will be advanced by the delegates attending and exhausted argument will be employed in support of the different plans, but I am inclined to the belief that the special committee named a year ago will present a report and recommendations that will prove generally satisfactory."

GREAT PARIS ART SALE.

Paris, Nov. 11.—Collectors and dealers from Europe and America were present today at the beginning of the sale of the second section of the famous Dufour art collection. The sale will continue through the week. The lot to be disposed of includes many valuable ancient and modern paintings.

THE DEER SEASON IS ON

JACK JOHNSON MAKES APPEAL

Ask Supreme Court to Be Permitted to Give Bail

Washington, Nov. 11.—Jack Johnson, through his attorney, Ben Bach-rach, today filed a motion with the supreme court asking to be permitted to give bail pending a hearing in the federal court in Chicago on an indictment charging violation of the Mann act.

Solicitor General Butler has asked until Friday to file a brief in opposition. Johnson's attorneys wanted the motion passed upon by tomorrow. The chief justice gave the government until Wednesday to file its brief.

FOURTEEN DEAD; MANY INJURED

Freight and Excursion Train Collide in South

New Orleans, La., Nov. 11.—Fourteen or more were killed, four seriously injured, and fifty slightly hurt, in a wreck which occurred on the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley R. R., near Montz, La., 27 miles north, at midnight, when a through freight crashed into the rear of an excursion express train of ten coaches.
Five coaches of the passenger train were burned and many wreck victims are believed to have been created.

Of the thirteen bodies so far recovered, nine are negroes and four whites.
Of the injured, who may total seventy or more, the majority are said to be white.

An official statement of the company placed the blame on a brakeman named Cunningham, who is charged with failure to have signalled the freight train, which was running 25 minutes behind the excursion.

TWO CENT FARES.

Soc Line Must Not Charge More in Upper Peninsula.

Lansing, Mich., Nov. 11.—As the result of an order issued by the state railroad commission, the Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie railroad will be required to carry passengers over its lines in the upper peninsula for two cents per mile. The law passed at the last session of the legislature requires that all roads in the upper peninsula shall carry passengers at the rate of two cents per mile, the same as in the lower peninsula, but there is a provision that this shall apply only to routes whose earning capacity is of $1,000 per mile or more.

According to the report filed with the state railroad commission, Chairman C. L. Glasgow, says that the Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste.
Marie should now come under the provisions of that act and he has notified the officials that the fare must be reduced.

WAR MONUMENT DEDICATED.

Princeton, Ind., Nov. 12.—The dedication here today of the Gibson County soldiers and sailors' monument was made the occasion for a large gathering of civil war veterans of this vicinity. The dedication was accompanied by interesting exercises conducted under the auspices of the local Grand Army post.

TIRED OF FIGHT, KILLS HIMSELF

Julius A. Waymand, Prominent Socialist, Is Suicide

Washington, Nov. 11.—The suicide of Julius A. Waymand, one of the owners of the Socialist paper "Appeal to Reason," at Girard, Kansas, last night, will not affect the action of the federal government in prosecuting the paper for alleged misuse of the mails.

Despondency the Cause.

Girard, Kan., Nov. 11.—Friends of Waymand attribute his act to despondency over the death of his wife, who was killed in an automobile accident a year ago. They say he has been afflicted with periodic melancholy. Between the leaves of a book lying near the body the following note was found:
"The struggle under the competitive system isn't worth the effort, let it pass."

Waymand was to have appeared in the federal court at Fort Scott, Kan., today to answer the charge of the government against several editors and owners of the "Appeal to Reason" for circulating in the mails alleged defamatory matter concerning an official of the federal prison at Leavenworth.

Waymand was 36. He founded the paper 15 years ago. He established "The Coming Nation" at Greensburg in 1892. Later he founded a Socialist colony at Ruskin, Tennessee. He is survived by two sons and three daughters.

RIOTERS TO MARQUETTE.

Ringleaders of Jackson Prison Trouble Sent to U. P.

Jackson, Mich., Nov. 11.—Following a meeting of the board of control here at least six convicts were taken from the Michigan state prison, one at a time, and spirited out of the city by officials of the institution, ostensibly bound for Detroit, but little doubt exists that they continued on to Marquette, the transfer being made in the interests of discipline at Jackson prison.

The prisoners all left the city on separate trains. Four of them are known to have been shackled hand and foot and wearing a ball and chain, while the other two are thought to have been safeguarded in the same manner. Two of the prisoners, in charge of Guards Boone and Palmer, left over the Michigan Central, while another convict, in charge of Pickett, an official of the P. U. R. is thought to have left over the D. U. R. at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, while another convict was taken away by Official Riley.

The greatest secrecy was maintained in the removal of the prisoners, and in order to avoid attracting attention they were all taken on separate trains, leaving at 2:45, 7:50 and 8:40 o'clock at night. It is understood that for some time past there has been talk of removing some of the ringleaders among the convicts in the recent rioting at Marquette, a step probably decided on by the board of control at its meeting last week.

The name of only one convict among the six was learned, Melvin Kelly. It is not known on the outside of the prison that he was ever in any trouble within the walls.

WAR MONUMENT DEDICATED.

ication here today of the Gibson Coun-
vicinity. The dedication was accompanied by interesting exercises con-
Grand Army post.

FIVE JURORS IN BOX.

New York, Nov. 11.—With five jurors in the box the trial of the four gunmen charged with the shooting of Rosenthal resumed today. The indications are the jury will be completed before adjournment.

SOUTHERN WOMEN TO MEET

Taft to Receive Women of Confederacy at White House.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 11.—An unusually large attendance is promised at the nineteenth annual convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, which will hold a four-day meeting here this week. Especial interest attaches to the convention from the fact that it will be the first that the society has ever held north of Mason and Dixon's line.

The opening session will be held tomorrow morning in Continental Memorial Hall. In the afternoon the delegates will go to Arlington to attend the laying of the cornerstone for the Confederate monument there. President Taft will receive the delegates at the White House on Thursday. The next day the Maryland Daughters will entertain the visitors at Annapolis.

PIONEER MINER IS FOUND DEAD

Capt. S. C. Bennett, Well Known Here, Ends Life

A dispatch from Kenosha, Wis., makes the following mention of the death of a former well known mining man.

"The body of Captain Samuel C.
Bennett, wealthy mine owner and mine superintendent of Crystal Falls, Mich., was found floating in the waters of Pike river, a mile north of Kenosha, this afternoon. The coroner asserts Bennett jumped into the river while despondent. The water was less than eighteen inches deep. Bennett left the Pennoyer sanitarium here Tuesday afternoon. His cap was found floating on a post near the spot where the body was lying.

"Captain Bennett was seventy years old and played a big part in the development of the Calumet mining district. For more than forty years he had been actively connected with the mining industry in that territory.
Worn out after a long trip abroad he had returned to Crystal Falls, but a week later came to the sanitarium. Dr.
O. C. Peterson of Chicago was with him as his personal physician. Tuesday Captain Bennett showed great interest in the election and motored into Kenosha. Later he returned, but clad only in his house clothing, left the sanitarium and was not seen alive again.

"Captain Bennett was a native of England and as a boy learned mining in Australia. His sons-in-law, Dr. F. G.
Noyes and E. J. Oswell, of Crystall Falls, will take the body there tomorrow."

FIVE STABBED BY LUMBERJACK

Runs Amuck With Knife at the See; Two May Die

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Nov. 11.— Paul Falar, a lumberjack, ran amuck in a hotel at Trout Lake last night and, wielding a long knife, seriously cut five men, two of them perhaps fatally.

Falar went to the village in a quarrelsome condition. Resenting a jest from a bystander, he drew the knife from his pocket and attacked everybody in sight. Those injured are:
James Morton; both arms slashed nearly off and stabbed through the lungs.

George Morton; stabbed near the heart; two gashes on body and hand nearly severed.

William Forbes; dangerously cut in the groin.

Ollie Smith; stabbed in left hip.

William Paquin; severely cut in right arm.

With his victims lying on the floor about him, Falar was preparing to make death certain in each case when Deputy Sheriff Rainey rushed in and overpowered him.

NATIONAL APPLE SHOW.

Questions of Interest to Be Considered by Growers.

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 11.—With a record-breaking display representing a dozen states, the fifth National Apple Show opened in Spokane today and will continue until Saturday.

During the week of the show the apple-growers of the Pacific Northwest, together with orchard by-product manufacturers, railway traffic managers and bankers, are to hold an important conference here to endeavor to solve a number of pressing problems affecting the apple industry. Foremost among them are the question of distribution of the fast-increasing apple crop and the matter of profitable utilization of orchard by-products.

HOME RULE VOTE ADVERSE TO CABINET

House of Commons in Committee Decides Against Government Measure

CABINET NOT TO RESIGN

Will Continue in Office Because of the Balkan War Complications

AMBASSADOR BRYCE TO RETIRE

London, Nov. 11.—The cabinet was reversed today by a vote of 228 to 206 in the committee on the home rule bill.

The division was a snap one, on the financial provisions of the home rule bill. The House of Commons adjourned.

The government is considering its position in view of the adverse vote in the committee. The cabinet doesn't necessarily have to resign, and unlikely will not do so in the face of the international crisis.

There is considerable opposition by the members on the ministerial side of the house to the financial provisions of the home rule bill. Some seventy liberal members have given voice to an objection to the Irish parliament being given control of the customs as they argue such control would enable the Irish parliament to introduce protection.

The government faces three possible courses. The cabinet can resign, it can drop the home rule bill, or bring forward a motion to recommit the bill to obtain the opinion of the full house on the vote. One of the government whips stated the cabinet had decided not to resign.

Ambassador Bryce to Retire.

Washington, Nov. 11.—The voluntary retirement of British Ambassador James Bryce which it is expected will be formally announced today or tomorrow, it is believed will mark the abandonment of any purpose of the U. S. to secure consummation of the pending general arbitration treaty with Great Britain. The British embassy has announced the time of Bryce's departure has not been fixed.

Will Clear up Pending Matters.

London, Nov. 11.—Bryce will remain in Washington until all pending negotiations are cleared up. These include it is understood, the function of the Panama canal. His successor probably will be Sir Cecil Arthur Spring Rice.
With exception of the official West-minister Gazette, comments of evening newspapers on Bryce's term of office in Washington are most unfavorable. This is due to the assistance he gave to Canada in the negotiation of a reciprocity treaty, for which the Unionist press is unable to forgive him.

CAPITAL CHURCHES SEEK WILSON AND MARSHALL; BOTH PRESBYTERIANS.

Washington, Nov. 11.—A brisk but dignified rivalry has sprung up between the various Presbyterian churches of Washington as to which shall have the honor during the coming administration of counting as parishioners the president and vice president of the United States and their families. It is understood that unofficially both Gov. Wilson and Gov. Marshall have been invited by several churches to worship with them, but if either the president-elect, or the next vice-president have chosen their home, the fact has not been made public. Both Gov. Wilson and Gov. Marshall are prominent in the Presbyterian church, each being an elder in his own congregation.

CARRIE JACOBS BOND.

One of the most interesting musical attractions of the season will be that given by Mrs. Carrie Jacobs Bond at the Calumet theater on Nov. 12, under the management of Thomas Tunney.
Mrs. Bond is a well known author and composer and she will sing and read her own selections.

KING OF ITALY 43

Rome, Nov. 11.—King Victor Emmanuel's forty-third birthday anniversary was celebrated today by the populace throughout the kingdom. The King and the other members of the royal family appeared on the streets and were cheered enthusiastically.
